

Stone Festival 2023 - Historical Talk

Canal Town - Stone & the development of the Trent & Mersey canal

An illustrated talk by Steve Booth, of the Stone Historical and Civic Society.

Stone played a key role in the construction & running of the Trent & Mersey Canal. From the early meetings held at the Crown Hotel, involving James Brindley, Josiah Wedgwood and others, what life was like for the families operating the horse-drawn barges, and the key roles played by Westbridge House and Stone Boatyard in the operation of the canal.

Wednesday 7th June - 7.30pm – upstairs at Joules Crown Wharf

Admission : £2.00 at the door
